to run longer, to bike more often, to climb higher, to hike three new canyons, to ride a horse, to ride a motorcycle, to try five new climbing routes, to take more photos, to actually print one out and frame it, to discover a vortex, to take my dog for a hike, to breathe cleaner air, to say Hello to my God, to go on a wildflower walk, to spot a lizard, to feel more zen, to guess when Mojave Max (RR Visitor's Center tortoise) will come out of hibernation, to be more spiritual, to practice yoga on a rock, to count ten shooting stars, to go on a star watch, to witness an eclipse, to use a telescope, to hear silence, to listen to a brook burbling out of a spring, to watch the sun set more often, to be more grateful, to pick up litter, to take my grandma for a Sunday drive, to ride the loop, to rest and relax more, to do it with resolution, to protect my lifestyle
